Who are the CICC?

A representative group of young people who come together to share our views and help improve services we receive.

Why not get involved

- Its your right to have your voice heard
- Have YOUR say on what is important to you
- We will listen to you and make things better
